NEEDLE DELIGHTS ORIGINAL CLASS

DATE: Thursday, September 22, 2016
INSTRUCTOR: Kathy Rees, Owner of Needle Delights Original
TIME: 10AM - 5PM
COST: TBD

It isn't often enough that we are privileged to host a needlepoint designer with the imagination and eye for color combinations as Kathy Rees. Kathy is the owner of Needle Delights and we have carried her wonderful counted needlepoint charts for many years. You will often see her finished designs on display here at our store. Part of the appeal of Kathy's designs is that you can choose your own colorway, not just the one that is shown on the package photo.

A separate email will go out as soon as the class cost is determined!
